

CAMILLA

NEWSLETTER JUNE 2024

Hello Camilla Families,

As we approach the end of the school year, I would like to highlight some important upcoming events and reminders. Firstly, we are excited to celebrate our Grade 9 students at their Farewell Ceremony on June 6th. This event marks a significant milestone as they transition from middle school to high school. We look forward to honoring their achievements and sharing this special moment with our school community.

Additionally, with final exams just around the corner, I encourage all students to begin their preparations early. Reviewing class notes, completing study guides, and seeking help from teachers are excellent ways to ensure success. Our teachers are here to support you, so please don't hesitate to reach out for assistance.

Thank you for your continued support and involvement in our school community. Let's make these final weeks of the school year both productive and memorable.

This Month: Diversity

Why do diversity and inclusion matter?

Talking openly and positively about differences can help children better understand themselves and those around them. Embracing diversity and inclusion empowers kids to engage their world with curiosity, confidence and kindness. Diversity and inclusion helps children learn to empathize with people who are different from them. Diversity and inclusion make all kids better learners, allowing them to understand various subjects from multiple points of view.

Ways to promote diversity and inclusion at home

The best way for kids to learn about diversity and inclusion is to see it modeled by trusted adults. Parents can take active steps to make sure their child is immersed in communities and opportunities that embrace and celebrate differences.

Books on Diversity and Inclusion

- "All are welcome" by Alexander Penfold, Suzanne Kaufman
- "Same, Same but Different" by Jenny Sue Kostecky Shaw
- "The Judgmental Flower" by Julia Cook
- "Just Ask" by Sonia Sotomayor

Questions parents can ask themselves

- What is unique about our family culture? How do we celebrate that uniqueness? How do we respect and celebrate other cultures?
- What types of diversity do we have in our family?
- Who do we invite to our home for social time?
- Is our neighborhood diverse and inclusive? If not, what makes it that way?
- What types of diversity and inclusion are reflected in our religious or ethical community? How can we be more diverse and inclusive?
- Does my child see diverse people in positions of authority (e.g., teachers, coaches, health care providers, faith leaders, etc.)? If not, how can I change that?
- Do our extracurricular or leisure time activities include diverse groups of people? What opportunities exist to become more involved?
- Does the media we consume (e.g., books, shows, videos, games, etc.) feature diverse characters and storylines without stereotypes? Do we use media as an opportunity to talk about diversity and inclusion?

Our classes have prepared a special "Thank YOU" to celebrate our amazing volunteers throughout the year

CAMILLA

41st Annual Used Book Fair, Plant and Bake Sale

A huge thank you to all the students and parents for donating the books, plants and baked goods, without your support there wouldn't be a Used Book Fair. A special shout out to Veronica Schoenberger for being my right hand in helping organizing this affair, without her this affair would not be as successful. A very special thank you to all of our wonderful volunteers who helped organize all the books, worked the book fair and stayed to clean up.

We collected over 15,000 books, with a profit of $3,756 and we added to our collection in the library. All the leftover books were donated to Fusion Thrift Store in Morinville.

Thank you again and save your used books for next year.
